NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

THURSDAY MORN'G, MAY 7, 1857.

ON THE OUTSIDE OF THIS ISSUE—First Page—The Honest Thief—Last Page—Church and State.

There are no two distinctive terms in our vocabulary, familiar as they are to the ears of all of us, more frequently misapplied and more sadly perverted than Conservatism and Radicalism. A man possessing no particular political creed in the present, but clinging with unnatural tenacity to ancient hobbies that have been ridden to death many years since, and hugging with convulsive affection the old landmarks, that indicated where we were as a nation half a century ago, but have been washed from their foundation "when the floods were out,"—such an one is a conservative by his fellows, and is regarded and respected as a very desirable model of good citizenship, and practical common sense. On the other hand, the advocates of our progress as a people, spasmodic and rough although it may be, because like a young giant taking his first strides, we are scarcely aware of our own untutored strength and power, and cannot entirely regulate and control the as yet undisciplined forces that urge us on in our career of improvement,—an advocate of this progress, because he endeavors to accommodate his riding and vaulting to the speed of the horse he strides, is christened radical and rash—men are apt to criticize his position and views with an asperity which is in itself radical, and the much cherished epithets of "Young America" and "fast," herald all his business, political and social schemes.

Ultra Conservatism and extreme Radicalism are rather the faults of our inexperience and crudity as a people, than the results of any matured system of thought or experience. As our fathers perceive that old things are passing away and all things are becoming new, the memories of the past,—with its loved associations—hallowed by time and ripened with the lapse of years,—influence them to hold fast that which they consider good, because it once was productive of national and individual benefits, forgetting that times change, and we must change with them, and that "consistency although a jewel" is by no means exemplified by a blind adoration of what once was admirably adapted to the age that was—but has fulfilled its mission and ceased to be of utility to the times that are—as we cast aside the scaffolding from the building when it advances towards completion, or perhaps rudely knock the supporters from the ship upon the stocks, when we are preparing to launch her upon the waters,—but again—our young men in trying to shape the spirit of the age are liable to as extreme misconceptions in the opposite direction. Experience is a good schoolmaster for men as well as youths, and it is worse than idle to discard all that former generations have said and done. We should recollect that time perfects one system of thought and action, whilst it decays another,—the true idea of successful progress embodies in itself the best features and characteristics of what has been, modified and shaped with the energy and vitality of what now is, so that the honest man should shape his course of greatness and goodness to avoid the Scylla of Conservatism and the Charybdis of Radicalism, and select that "medium way" (which so few of us follow,) in his earlier days, so that "When red-hot youth, cools down to iron man" he may be prepared to occupy the position assigned him in society and life, and reap for his well-considered course of discipline the respect and approval of those around him.

Our readers have no doubt laughed over the jocular typographical error in yesterday's issue, wherein our "devil" announced that the funeral of the BERKELEY INSTITUTE would take place on a certain day not very distant. We are happy to inform them, however, that the Institute is at this time in as good health as ever,—that it bids fair to do even better than usual this season, and that the term has commenced with unusual advantages. Mr. Leverett informs us that he has succeeded in procuring able and experienced assistants in the various branches, which we congratulate him on, and assure him that he has our best wishes for the future.

We have noticed with pleasure that through the efforts of the City Solicitor, Col. Van Zandt, and also those of our efficient Marshal, Mr. Robert Seattle, during the past year, the City Ordinances and laws against houses of doubtful repute, and disorderly persons have been more rigidly enforced than ever before.

By reference to our reports of the Court of Justices it will be seen, that several dens of the vilest description situated on Bannister's Wharf have been broken up, much to the advantage of that neighborhood.

If this course is pursued during the coming season, our city will be, to a certain extent relieved of the rogues and rascals that are so generally found at fashionable watering places during the season.

The Tow-boat Ajax arrived here yesterday for the purpose of towing the ship Clarendon to New York; the Clarendon was sold, a short time since, by Messrs. T. & J. Coggeshall to Dugan, Leland & Co., of New York.

Communication from Street Commissioner in relation to sea wall at the beach, read and referred back to Street Com. for estimate.

Adjourned to Tuesday, May 19, 1857, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Our citizens are aware that much can be done for the improvement of our wharves, which will render them still more desirable for commercial purposes. We were led to the contemplation of this matter as we see that Silas Cottrell, Esq. is now making some improvements at his dock adjoining his railway. We should suppose that this was the most suitable season to prosecute such improvements, and we have no doubt that the same persons and machinery which are now being used by Mr. Cottrell can be procured for any like purpose cheaper after he has disposed of them than at any future and less opportune time. We are also informed that several of our citizens are now making arrangements for the prosecution of similar improvements.

Our friend Ward probably perceiving our delinquencies has sent us a fine quarto of Noah Webster's Dictionary, unabridged. We have long felt the need of this desideratum in our new quarters, and are not ashamed to own it.

The work is the most complete Dictionary of the English language, and is generally admitted as a standard both in this country and in England, it is got up in good style, bound in leather and contains a memoir and finely engraved likeness of its learned author, also a very valuable and full introduction. And should be possessed by every family in the city.

It gratifies us to learn from the account rendered against the overseer of the poor on Tuesday evening last that rising fifty tons of Coal, in addition to other fuel has been distributed to the Poor of this city, during the past season. About one hundred families have been benefited by it, at a cost of $330.18; $100 of which has been generously given by our present Mayor, Hon. William J. Swinburne.

We have received from Dr. T. W. Wood of the City Music Store, the Old Stone Mill Scottish a favorite, original and sprightly piece of music. It was composed by N. Dausch, and is got up in a very neat and attractive style by our friend the doctor.

We understand that it can be procured with a large assortment of new and miscellaneous music at the City Music Store.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that there are to be to-day three auction sales of Real Estate, viz: the building lots of Mr. P. Caswell, Jr., on Broad street, a farm of 30 acres on the westerly road from Newport to Bristol; and a portion of the Almy estate situated in this city.

William B. Howland, of the City Market, under the Daily News Office, had the first Asparagus of the season yesterday; it was raised at the farm of T. B. Sherman, in Portsmouth.

We regret to learn that Capt. Simon Newton fell down the stairs of his residence yesterday, and severely injured himself.—Capt. Newton is one of our most venerable and respected citizens.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE PULPIT AND THE PRESS.—Rev. Dr. Chapin, in his discourse on Sunday forenoon, upon the subject "Resist not evil—love your enemies, do good to them that hate you," &c., took occasion to honor the noble stand taken by Rev. Dr. Bellows, in reference to the Drama; and handled, pretty severely, those straight-faced hypocrites who regarded it a contamination even to allude to the Stage, or amusements of any kind. The Reverend Speaker, however, gave no direct censure to the Theatre, though it was apparent to his mind that its abuses never could be eradicated, while those connected with it were spurned by what is termed the Religious classes. All natures, he contended, were not alike in respect to amusements; for there were many who could attend the Theatre without being in the least demoralized thereby, while others would go almost purposely to inhale, as it were, that, to a refined and generous nature, would be repulsive.

Dr. Bellows had nobly led the way for a correction of whatever abuses might exist; and he hoped his example would be followed by all liberal and active working Christians. The discourse was listened to by a crowded audience, with the deepest attention.—N. Y. Mirror.

The Leavenworth, Kansas, Times, announces the success of the Free State Mayor under this caption. We copy the heads in condensed form, omitting the italics, caps, exclamation points, &c. "Leavenworth City to the Whole World, Greeting!—Bring Out the Big Gun!—'Glorious Victory!—The People Triumphant!—'Great Moral Demonstration.'—'Free State Mayor elected by an overwhelming Majority!—'Free Speech, Free Press and Free Soil for Kansas.'—'Let the American Eagle Scream!—'The Citizens rescued from the Invaders.'—'The Enemies of the People calling for the Rocks and Mountains to fall upon them.'—'The Day begins to Dawn!—'Great Demand for Holes to hide Heads in.'—'The Unisaries of the Evil One Routed!—'Nigger Drivers Bivouacked.'—'National Democracy biting the Dust, and Bogus Squatter Sovereignty sitting in Sackcloth and Ashes.'—'Free Kansas for Free Men.'—'Let the Hearts of the People Rejoice!—'Hallelujah!—'The Lord Reigneth and the Devil's a fool!'

Everything seemed calculated to impress on the mind of a looker on, that for one day, grief and poverty were to find no resting place in that happy city. Who could tell that amongst that crowd of busy bustling

From the Daily Eastonian, May 4. GREAT FRESHET IN THE DELAWARE.—HEAVY LOSS OF PROPERTY.—During Saturday and yesterday there was a great freshet in the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, and large amounts of property were destroyed. On Saturday the eddy in the Delaware above Easton, was filled with rafts which had been landed, some of them belonging to the raftmen, and others having been sold to lumbermen in this neighborhood. Two log rafts were landed at the town, and during the afternoon of Saturday a large log raft belonging to a Mr. Ross was started from the eddy and with great difficulty landed by the assistance of many men, just above the bridge.

Yesterday morning, at 7 o'clock, the freshet in the Delaware had reached nineteen feet, and six heavy rafts broke loose from their fastenings at the eddy, and went off. One of them struck a pier of the Delaware bridge, and swinging around came against a log raft fastened to the shore and broke it in two, but did not loosen it from its fastenings. Several other rafts passed down during the day, some of them being much broken and injured. Of those which broke loose from the eddy in the morning, two belonged to Mr. Michael Butz, of our borough; one to Mr. James McKee, of South Easton; one to Mr. Doster, of Bethlehem, and two to raftsmen. At noon the water had reached a height of twenty-two feet.

The waters of Lehigh were also greatly swollen, and much property was injured.—About ten o'clock A. M. of yesterday, the Lehigh commenced falling at Bethlehem and other points above the dams, but for some distance above Easton the waters were dammed by the Delaware, and fences, lumber, &c., were put afloat, to the great damage of the owners.

At six o'clock last evening the Delaware had reached a height of 23 1/2 feet, and was rising very slowly. At this time two more rafts broke loose at the eddy and came down. They were both log rafts. The larger one belonged to Mr. Doster, of Bethlehem, and was worth about $800. This touched a pier of the Delaware Bridge and ran far against a pier of the railroad bridge, completely separating the logs and making a tremendous crash against the bridge. The smaller one belonged to Messrs. Tinsman & Bennett. It passed both bridges without touching.

Large bodies of drift wood ran during the day, and many fragments of buildings, bridges, boats, &c., passed by. The freshet was by far the largest of the season, and lumbermen and others have suffered immense losses from it.

During yesterday thousands of persons thronged the river banks to witness the raging of the waters, while many were engaged in removing goods from store houses which were inundated, and in protecting property otherwise exposed. The banks of the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania canal were overflowed, and it is supposed that much damage is done to them.

SERMONS FOR AND AGAINST THE STAGE.—Rev. Dr. CHAPIN, of the Broadway Universalist Church, delivered a sermon on Sunday, in which he took occasion highly to eulogize the stand taken by Rev. Dr. Bellows, in favor of theatrical amusements, under proper regulations. His text was, "Resist not evil; love your enemies; do good to them that hate you," &c., Dr. C. did not favor the theatre in its present arrangement—but thought its abuse might be reformed. He hoped the example of Dr. B. would be followed by all liberal and active Christians.

Rev. Dr. VAN ZANDT, pastor of the Reformed Dutch church, 9th street, preached a sermon on Sunday evening, in opposition to the doctrine of Dr. BELLAWS. His text was from Ephesians v. 11. "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." His principal points were, that the theatre properly comes under the catalogue of unfruitful works; and, that to encourage, countenance or patronize theatrical performances is unbecoming Christians; by whom, on the contrary, they should be disapproved and denounced.

As we stated in yesterday's paper the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, of Brooklyn, also preached against the positions assumed by Dr. Bellows, though not with the rigid severity of Dr. Van Zandt. The respective sermons were listened to by large audiences.—Sun.

Aid for Gen. Walker.

HIS CAUSE NOT YET ABANDONED.

[From the New Orleans Creole, April 24.] The movement is in progress which cannot fail to secure the final triumph of the cause of Walker in Nicaragua. Within one month 1,000 men will be in San Juan, determined to re-open the route across the country to the Pacific, now closed by the Costa Rican forces. It is a commercial as well as a colonizing movement.

The Texas will sail from Charleston between the first and 15th of May, with 600 emigrants, and before that time a much larger number will leave this city.

The enemies of Nicaraguan regeneration need not exult over the apparent ill fortune of Gen. Walker. He is but an atom compared with the force this movement, of which he is the nominal head, has now acquired.

This above is about the news we expected to receive after our late publication of Walker's disasters. The next report will probably state that Walker is completely annihilated.

THE COMET.—A correspondent, who seems to have been moved to a most sovereign contempt for all the troubles of time, and, indeed, for all terrestrial things, by the expected visit of the great Comet, desires us to inform the Police Commissioners, Mayor Wood, the Aldermen, the Albany legislators, the politicians, office-seekers and lawyers, that they had better be preparing for "the end that draweth nigh," than be fretting and fuming and wasting their precious hours in vain contentions.—He thinks the world has reached the required degree of wickedness to warrant its destruction; and, according to his interpretation of prophecy, the Day of Judgment is only a few months distant. We give them the desired warning, and hope that they will take it to heart and mend their ways.—Sun.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUFFEN'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause. All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, are some of the most common symptoms of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive. Price $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 to STURGIS & CO., Box 24 Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country.
